Since joining Eckenhoff Saunders in 2005, Samantha has developed into an integral part of its successful healthcare design practice. She has played a vital role in designing and implementing multiple complex healthcare projects, including many for DuPage Medical Group. Samantha recently participated in a lean 2P event with DMG to renovate a 55,000 sf medical office building and completed the schematic design of a 50-bed Emergency Department renovation focusing on behavioral health for AMITA Health.
